Drive Alive from 9 - 5

The Northern Ireland Road Safety Group recently held a Seminar in the King's Hall on Driving at Work. This covered the legal perspective, the risks involved and ways to improve safety for all. The seminar was attended by over 100 professionals from large and small organisations across Northern Ireland. Gerry Lee, Senior Partner of P R Hanna gave a presentation on the new Corporate Manslaughter Act 2007 which came into force on 6 April 2008. This Act states inter alia that all companies must implement a continual risk assessment and maintain an audit trail on all their employees driving on business, in either company vehicles or their own vehicles. P R Hanna Solicitors can offer legal advice to employers and businesses that may be unsure of what this Act means to them and their business. They are working closely with Matrix Global, experts in this area to assist and ensure employers and businesses become fully compliant with the new legislation. If you would like to know more about this Act and how it may effect you or your business please contact Gerry Lee on 028 9027 7790.

New Season Sponsorship for Hollywood Rugby Football Club

P R Hanna Solicitors continue their association with Hollywood Rugby Football Club and are delighted this year to sponsor the 1st Team. Gerry Lee is pictured with the team proudly wearing the new season's shirts featuring the P R Hanna Solicitors logo. The firm was appointed Solicitors for the Club earlier this year.

National Personal Injury Awards

A brand new Awards Scheme was launched this year aimed at raising standards and recognising excellence within the personal injury sector. The "Eclipse Proclaim" Personal Injury Awards brought together the most talented professionals working in this field from insurance claims handlers to claimant barristers. The awards culminated in a prestigious ceremony and dinner at the Café Royal in the heart of the City of London.

Having recently installed the Eclipse "Proclaim" Case Management system Gerry Lee, Senior Partner, was delighted to support this event and joined members of the legal profession and associated stakeholders to congratulate the winners.
